CAPTAIN KEN WOOLSEY

Veteran Pilot Gives Report To Lions Club

Featured speaker at the West Torrance Lions Club meeting Monday will be Captain Ken Woolsey, 27-year veteran pilot for Trans World Airlines. The meeting will be held at Gable House Bowl, Sepulveda and Hawthorne boulevards, at 12 noon.
Titled, "This is Your Captain Speaking," his report will concern the operations of a jet-age airline. Utilizing color movies and slides, the presentation is part of TWA's air travel education program.

Former City Councilman Gets Award

Willis G. Blount, a former Torrance City Councilman, will receive a "Courage of Conviction" citation from the Centinela Bay Human Relations Committee in ceremonies tomorrow night at Redondo Union High School.
Blount will be cited for his "understanding of the meaning of the Bill of Rights, displayed in opposing the barring from Torrance of a newspaper with whose policies he disagreed."
The public has been invited to the ceremonies, which will commemorate the Bill of Rights and the U.N. Declaration of Human Rights. Ceremonies will begin at 8 p.m.

Christmas Crime Wave Predicted

Sheriff Peter J. Pitchess predicted a record high Christmas crime rate in Los Angeles County this week, based on statistics which he said indicated nationwide crime is continuing its upward spiral.
Pitchess, who noted that December is traditionally the worst crime month of the year, has urged all citizens to take steps to prevent possible crimes. "In particular," said Pitchess, "with longer hours of darkness, we are asking every person to burn a light at night, all night, every night, in their home."

THE POSITIVE deterrent effect of light on crime cannot be over-emphasized," added the sheriff.
Pitchess also said businesses should insure adequate light. He noted that more than 90 per cent of all non-resident burglaries take place at night.
He also urged shoppers to lock packages in the trunk of their cars or place them on the floor and lock the car itself. "The chances of buying a Christmas gift for a thief are thus materially reduced," added Pitchess.

Lomita Zoning Case Denied

County Regional Planning Commissioners have denied a petition by Woodrow Lewis & Associates for a zone exception to permit an apartment at 2138 W. 242nd St.
The developers had requested a zone exception to permit construction of the units with less than the required parking and setback.
